Welcome to the next edition of yFive, our to do list for this third weekend of February. Each week we'll provide our picks for the best in dining, live entertainment and clubbing, as well as a suggestions for whiling away your Saturday and Sunday afternoons

1. Dining: We've been fans of the Rosebud restaurant since it opened over a year ago. It's not just because the gregarious and opinionated chef hails from Newfoundland. A warm ambience, generous portions and an eclectic soundtrack keep us going back for more. The food's received rave reviews; we recommend the short ribs. Dinner for two, with a bottle of wine, will be around $115. The Rosebud, 669 Queen Street West, (416) 703-8810.

2. Club: This Friday is the much anticipated opening of Cheval Bar. Located in the former 606 (we don't miss that place either), this new venue promises an upscale experience. With digs designed by Precipice Studios, we think it's worth a look. Cheval Bar, 606 King West.
